A safari is just not only a safari

A safari can be many things- all depending on what you want to achieve. Budget luxury, tent, lodge, camping? What safari destinations and how many do you want to see? Fly or drive in? Honeymoon or family? Professional photography or photography for fun?

The combination of safari destinations and adventures in the amazing country Tanzania is endless. For us a safari is about finding out what you prefer and propose accordingly. And we are proud to be subjective- we know what works and where you get the best value for money. And we are happy to share.

In other words- get involved with a safari company that cares about you and your safari. For that we do not charge any extra. We just want you to love the country as we do.

Golf at the foothills of Kilimanjaro

Tanzania Adventure spends a lot of time in the country to find new adventures.

Lately we have investigated the possibility to come to Tanzania to play Golf. Our guess is that we are the first company offering golf travelling within Tanzania. The perfect combination with safari, Kilimanjaro and Zanzibar Beach– or as a stand-alone trip.

Strong in group handling. Very strong.

28 years of experience in group handling have thought us what can go wrong- and how to avoid it. Double check and triple check is one quality rule we can reveal.

Groups need special treatment, else it could be annoying for everyone. We know where to find the most efficient group handling buy reception and restaurant. We know which lodges to use to avoid administration such as complicated check in cards. If you need special size areas with a cozy feeling we know where to find them.

With Tanzania Adventure your tour leader gets a seat free of charge, a local telephone and internet if needed.

In case of emergency all our customers are insured with a flying doctor service.

They get first aid on the spot and a flight to the nearest hospital in case of emergency.

All our cars are equipped with cooler boxes to get chilled mineral water throughout the safari. They also have first aid kits, radios, power sockets, binoculars field guides and functioning safety belts.

Family safaris? check. strong there too.

That we can say without a doubt. We have ten years of experience in travelling with kids. We know how to act in order to keep everyone happy. We know the special lodges with big enough rooms to accommodate a family, we know the lodges with a flexible price policy and lots of other places where children and active families are welcome. And we have full understanding of which lodges are children safe and with special features. Of course safety is always first priority when it comes to kids.

Also we understand the importance of an itinerary with few changes. We recommend max 3-4 different accommodations and at least two nights in every place to allow for maximum relaxation.

And children are restless; they want to go out of the car. That is why we enrich our family itineraries with non-wildlife activities allowing the children to go out of the vehicle as often as possible. Jungle walks, bicycling, beadings with maasai, rock climbing, canoeing and making fire are some of the activities.

So, in other words, putting your family customers in our hands is a good way to keep them happy.

Tanzania - immensely diverse

Lying just south of the equator, Tanzania is East Africa's largest country, and an immensely rewarding place to visit. There are several world-famous attractions as the plains of the Serengeti with its migration of herd of wildebeest and zebras, Ngorongoro Crater, snow-capped Mount Kilimanjaro and Zanzibar, with its idyllic palm-fringed beaches and historical Stone Town. Further there is Lake Victoria, on the Kenya-Uganda-Tanzania border. This is the largest lake in Africa and is traditionally named as the source of Nile.

Almost everywhere you go you will find interesting wildlife and inspiring landscape (over 40% of the country is protected in some form or other) ranging from forest, covered volcanic peaks to dusty savannah populated by elephants, antelopes, lions, leopard and cheetahs... Tanzania is one of the four most naturally diverse nations on earth: it contains Africa's second largest number of bird species (around 1500), the continent biggest mammal population and a 75% of East Africa's plant species (over 10.000).

Add to this the country's rich ethnic diversity, some superb hiking and other activities like snorkeling and diving, and you have the makings of a holiday of a lifetime. The climate of Tanzania ranges from hot and humid on the coast, to a more temperate climate in the elevated center of the country.
